THRU:

Fred N. Rubel, Chief
Emergency Response Branch

As requested in your letter dated March 4, 1983, a copy of which is attached, follow-up has continued on the SPCC plan for Lancia Oil Company, 340 South River Street, Hackensack, New Jersey 07601.

An SPCC Plan Desk Review was performed by William Kowalski of our Technical Assistance Team on June 2 1984, for the facility's plan dated October 29, 1981.

The report indicates that concerns noted and addressed by the facility's engineering firm in a memo to you dated May 25, 1982, have now been resolved and changes implemented. The facility is now in apparent compliance with 40 CFR 112. However, please be aware of the caveats addressed in Mr. Kowalski's report. Please also keep in mind that this is a desk review, relying on the verbal assurance of the facility of SPCC implementation.
